Why chose us:

We believe that every child has God-given potential and a unique purpose in life. At Charis we create a family environment, keep classes small and provide individual support. When you choose us we became a member of your extended family with the child's best at heart.

Our vision

To establish a school of excellence, build on a biblical and Christian foundation. To be a storehouse of history makers. Life changers and valued citizens.

Our mission

Training a child in the fear of the lord, and Knowledge of the lord, while providing education in excellence, in a Christian environment, by competent spirit –filled teachers who have a biblical perspective in all subject.

Choosing Charis you are choosing the right place at the right time”
